My face above the water

I wish I could make it easy

My feet can't touch the ground,

Easy to love me, love me

Touch the ground, and it feels like

But still I reach, to find a way

I can see the sands on the horizon

I'm stuck here in between

Everytime you are not around

I'm looking for the right words to say

I'm slowly drifting away (drifting away)

I'm slowly drifting, drifting away

Wave after wave, wave after wave

Wave after wave, wave after wave

I'm slowly drifting (drifting away)

I'm slowly drifting (drifting away)

And it feels like I'm drowning

And it feels like I'm drowning

Pulling against the stream

Pulling against the stream

Pulling against the stream

Pulling against the stream
